Is this the little girl I carried?
Is this the little boy at play?
I don't remember growing older.
When did they?
When did she get to be a beauty?
When did he grow to be so tall?
Wasn't it yesterday,
when they were small?

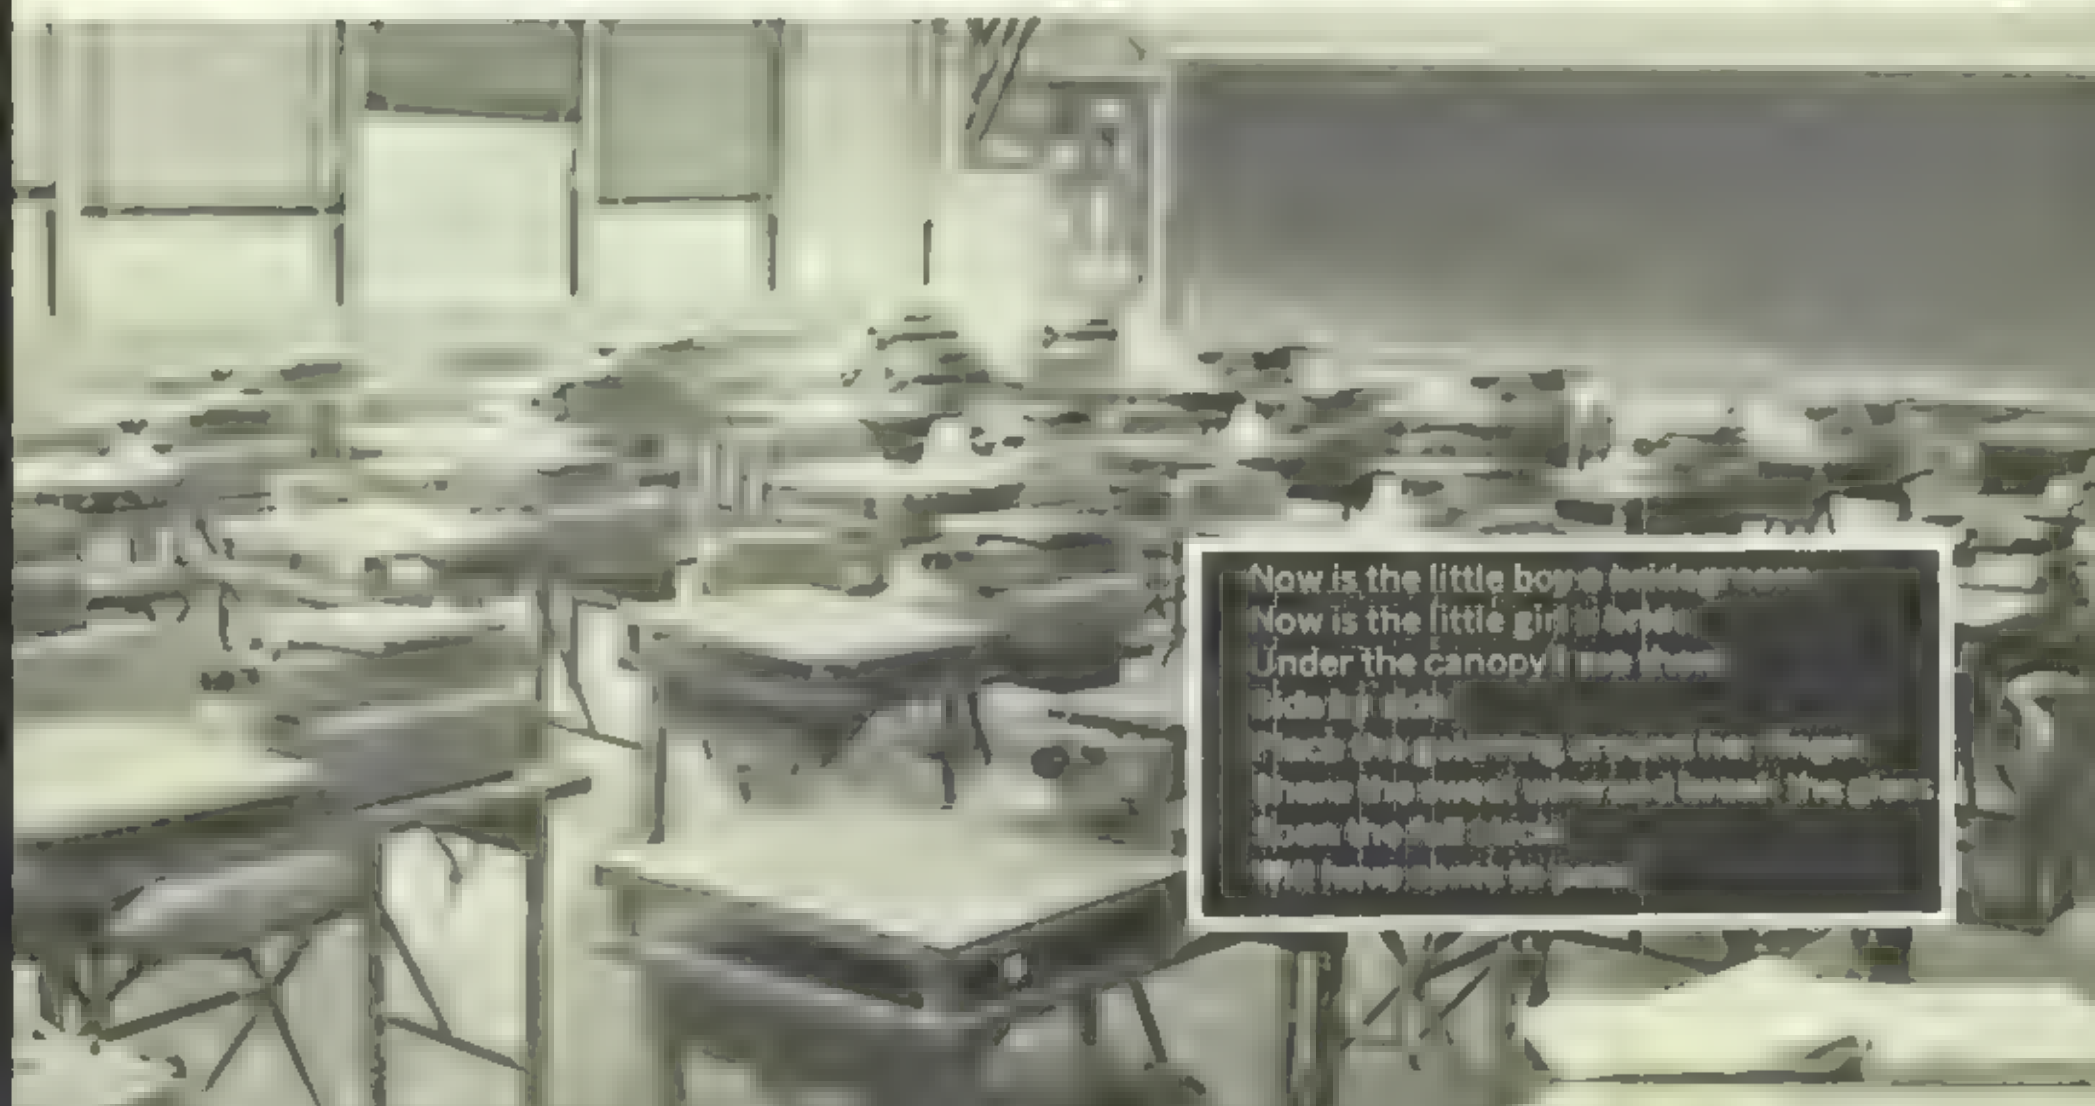

Sunrise, sunset.
Sunrise, sunset.
Swiftly flow the days;

Seedlings turn overnight to sunflowers,
Blossoming even as we gaze.

Now is the little boy's wedding room
Now is the little girl's wedding room
Under the canopy I see them
Sitting side by side
Each one looking at the other
From the moment they were born
From the moment they were born
From the moment they were born
From the moment they were born
From the moment they were born
From the moment they were born

Concern, involvement, and understanding are qualities which each of us cherish in ourselves and in others. Displaying these values and standards and creating a school of mutual understanding and pride centered around the students is our principal Dr. John Machisic.

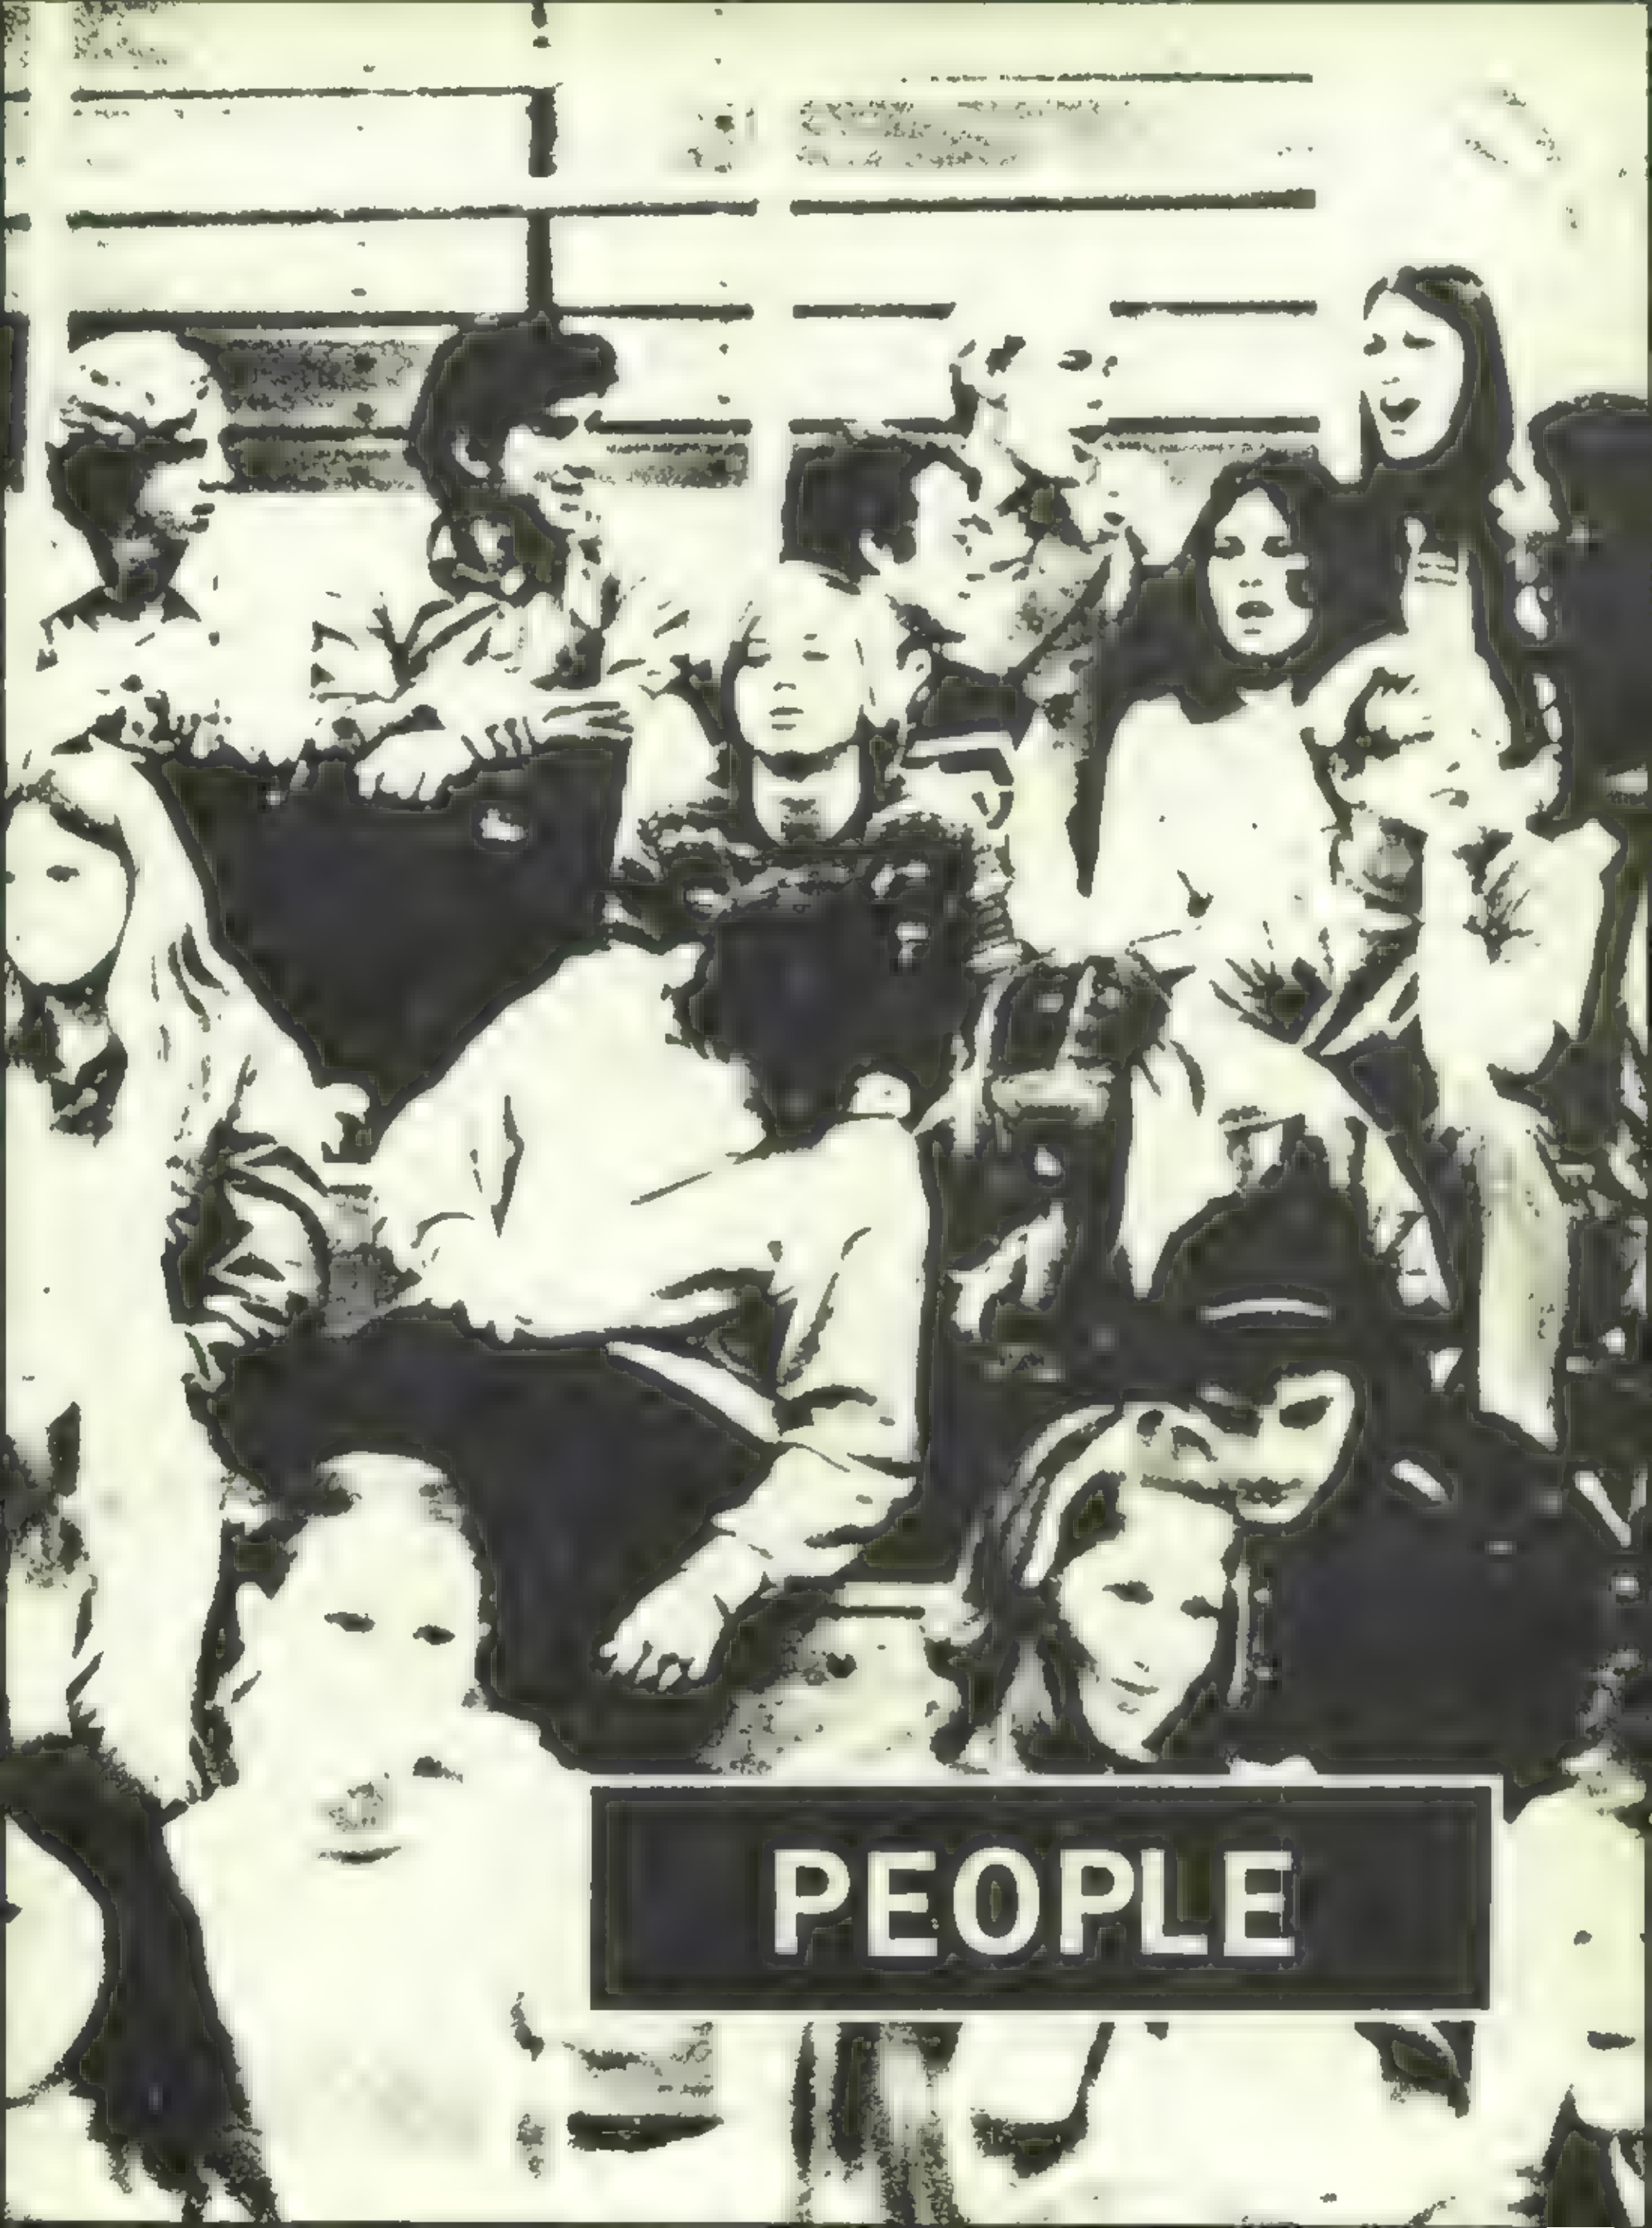

Student life has improved with each year he has been with us since 1970. From remodeling the cafeteria and creating the Media patio to sitting with students in the cafeteria and listening to their problems or suggestions, Dr. Machisic has worked hard to build a spirit of trust, loyalty and friendship among the students, faculty, administrators and parents of El Segundo.

We, the Golden Eagle staff of 1973, extend our sincere appreciation to Dr. Machisic for his hard work and personal concern which has produced such outstanding results. With his leadership, the potential and prospects for the future of ESHS are truly as bright as the early morning sunrise.

To Dr. John Machisic, principal, we proudly dedicate our 1973 Golden Eagle.

PEOPLE

A large group of people, mostly children and young adults, posing for a group photo outdoors. They are arranged in several rows, with some standing and some sitting or kneeling in the front. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Seniors saw the sunset of their high school education. After 13 years of school, they were ready to go forth and see the sunrise on new horizons — work, college, marriage, and for some, the unknown. Seniors challenged some old traditions and explored some new in their final year at ESHS. They didn't remember growing older, but suddenly they were graduating. Pep rallies, homecoming, dances, coronations and proms ended, but the memories of these good times will linger on for years. Setting examples for underclassmen, seniors displayed leadership in student government, sports, clubs and classrooms. They replaced the loss of Senior Park privileges with a stronger class unity and friendship. They kept the senior sections at rallies and assemblies. Seniors reached out and touched school spirit in a variety of activities.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Linda Les, secretary; Kristie Wallace, senator; Terri Schmutz, senator; Nancy Murphy, senator; Bill Frye, treasurer; Lisa Hamaker, governor; Paul M., treasurer.

Seniors captured pleasant moments between classes and during lunch. They laughed and told the latest jokes. They discussed clothes, games, boyfriends and rock concerts. Because they were Seniors they had lots to share and express. Because they were Seniors they set the standards for all other classes; leadership, spirit and loyalty. Because they were Seniors, they were a little sad that all will end to soon!

Warning: Being a Senior

can be dangerous to your health. Staying up all night to work on a homecoming float, to meet annual or newspaper deadlines, to cram for a test or type a research paper, or go to Disneyland on grad night can cause dark circles under eyes, a muddled brain and a tired body. Students must become Seniors at their own risk, but it is well worth it!

Some students do anything to cram for their next test

Seniors entered ESHS

in the fall of 1969, full of questions and enthusiasm. They worked, studied, played, watched television, went to the beach and soon became the big wheels on campus. In the fall of 1972, struck by the finality of it all, Seniors resolved to make their last year one to remember. They planned bake sales, supported all activities, showed school spirit, and planned a dynamic ditch day. They "Kept on trucking." Then on June 13, 1973, Seniors walked under those flowered arches and within a couple of hours, they were alumni. Who will ever forget the class of '73

Voting in the national Election was something new for the 18 year old Seniors. In civics, they heard candidates for various state offices and in all classes they discussed McGovern-Nixon and the issues of Viet Nam war, pollution and Proposition 14 (taxes) and the pros and cons of marijuana. Seniors showed a concern for the welfare and future of the country and were preparing for their place as leaders of tomorrow's world

Seniors are extra special people.

They sit in front of the auditorium during assemblies, they rule the pep rallies, and they become ASB officers. Seniors fill out college applications, scholarship forms and a dozen other forms for work, interviews, and sports. They hate to study but love to talk and eat and talk, talk, talk. Seniors can hardly wait to graduate but are sad when they do. Seniors show spirit and apathy, all at the same time. But a school without seniors is no school at all!

Golden Eagle presents

the class of '73. Clearly, these seniors are qualified and ready for work, college, or life. They have spent 13 years preparing for the future. The last four years challenged them to adjust in attitudes, dress, curriculum, buildings—just about everything. Never before has a class been subjected to so much change, but this only prepared them for a way of life that will be with them forever. Good luck, Seniors! We wish you well for the road ahead.

Cathy Cummings and Eric Kirkhuff find it hard to concentrate in Chemistry, but Ed Jolly definitely does not.

Juniors will long remember the dawn of their upperclassmanship. Their main objective was to earn money for the Junior-Senior Prom. Juniors spent many long hours working in concession booths, selling football programs and license plate holders, and planning various other activities which Mr. & Mrs. Peterson sponsored. Juniors enjoyed being excused second at rallies, where they were able to sit on the west side of the boy's gym, and at assemblies, where they occupied the seats in the middle row of the auditorium, behind the Seniors. For many Juniors it seems like a long time since they first entered high school as freshmen, went through the conditioning process of sophomores, finally to take their stand as the mighty Juniors.

Juniors were kept very active in such things as drama, chorus, pep club, drill team, student council, band and various sports. Besides these, there was the class meeting every Wednesday in Mr. Peterson's room. Also, many Juniors lent a hand in the building of a Homecoming float, hoping to win a high award from the judges. Juniors worked on the Prom and also were archbearers for graduation

Class of '74 shows enthusiasm.

They kept the old traditions of a refreshment booth at football games, a Homecoming float and Prom. They sold hot dogs, popcorn and cokes from an old Coke booth that looked almost impossible. They had one giant candy sale on a Saturday in November to provide them with the funds necessary to finance the Prom. Juniors not only remembered old friends, but made new ones. They worked and played hard to make their class "extra special".

A teacher can't be getting all this attention from Eric Curry!

Juniors were in the spotlight when the '74 class rings arrived in October. For many days following the distribution of the rings, Juniors could be seen showing off this symbol of upperclassmanship. Many Juniors just sat and stared at their new rings, it gave them great pleasure to know they had come this far already. It also instilled a certain excitement and pride in each and every Junior who received a class ring, which will, in future years, bring back memories and sentimentalities.

Even Maureen Cummings needs a time out once in a while!

Juniors have changed their attitudes and ways of thinking since the beginning of high school; they grew up and became aware of what was going on around them. Many Juniors showed their scholastic capabilities by taking the PSAT/NMSQT. With only one more year to go, all Juniors are looking forward to their final year at ESHS when they will be the ones on top.

Sophomores have come a long way since last year. No longer picked on by upperclassmen as the youngest class on campus, they shifted their energies to producing an excellent football team and a strong class. Sophomores met every Wednesday during lunch with Mr. Fred Sorkin, class advisor. Webster defines Freshman as a beginner.

From September on, Freshman began to get involved with life on campus. They began in sports, student government, clubs, and classes. Mr. Loren Cutner, Freshman counselor, helped them to plan their schedules and become adjusted to ESHS. They discovered new friends and a new life at ESHS. Upperclassmen, six different teachers in one school day, new classes and new faces made the year fun and exciting for Freshman. Coronation dance was their first taste of formal life in high school. They were quickly becoming old hands at facing new experiences.

New to the nest, the class of '76 timidly assumed its place and took a bird's eye look around. Bewilderment and disorganization marked its first few weeks as a Freshman class. As they tried their wings, their confidence grew and they left the nest and entered the main stream of campus life.

Rick Orens wonders how difficult the next test will be

For Freshman, the agony

of being underclassmen made it a long year. It meant waiting for everything: waiting in line for lunch, waiting to be excused from rallies and assemblies, and waiting to be upperclassmen.

Focusing on the future, Freshman contemplated their second year at ESHS with hope and happiness. They would be one step nearer to being upperclassmen - which didn't look so "high up" after all. They would be able to look condescendingly at next year's Freshman, and hopefully, they would become more involved in running the campus. Beginning the year as neophytes and strangers and ending it as old timers and friends, the class of '76 is on its way to being seniors.

STUDENT LIFE

The 1956 El Segundo High School Yearbook was dedicated to "Mom and Dad", a dedication which symbolizes the tradition of family life and loyalty which we learn from our parents. Home, school, and community teach the values of love, honor and service to God, and country, value which we cherish for a world of peace and understanding among all mankind. Among the graduates of '56 of El Segundo High School was a proud young man, Michael Scott Kerr. Following the motto inscribed above the doors of ESHS "Enter to learn; go forth for service", Michael gave of his time and of his life to serve his country by joining the United States Air Force. On January 16, 1967, Captain Kerr's Rf4C was downed over North Vietnam, and he was taken prisoner of war. Five years have passed, from dawn to dusk, from sunrise to sunset, and captain Kerr is still waiting for the day he can return home. We, the 1973 Golden Eagle Staff, in recognition and sincere appreciation of his service and loyalty to his country, are proud to dedicate this page in our yearbook to Michael Scott Kerr. In keeping with this years theme of "Sunrise, Sunset", from the musical play, "Fiddler on the Roof", it is our hope that soon the full circle will have come to pass, and that he will once again join his family and friends at home. A yearbook never forgets, and Captain Kerr is remembered.

Coronation dance crowned the Homecoming King and Queen for 1972. Sponsored by the Golden Eagle Staff, the Coronation was held at Lococco's in Manhattan Beach on November 2, 1972, from 8-12 P.M. The theme of "Colour My World" was carried out in the bids, decorations, and beautiful posters. The crowning of King, Lisle Randall and Queen, Idona Snow and the announcement of the Royal Court topped a magical night of fun and friendship. The music was provided by "Brown Eyes."

Homecoming week was fun and games. During lunch such activities as a tug of war contest between classes and egg toss and 3-leg races took place. Greeting the Eagles and faculty that Friday morning, November 10, was Drill Team and the Eagles "Hall of Fame" in the Main Hall. Their spirit and the burst of blue and gold started Homecoming Day with a bang! Preceding the rally was the Homecoming Parade down Main Street. Led by Grand Marshall Fred Marsee, Mayor Les Balmer and Dr. Machisic, the parade included class floats, marching band, King Lisle Randall and Queen Idona Snow and their royal court. Drill Team and Pep Club. In keeping with the theme, "Colour My World" the Freshman float was declared the winner for the Grand Prize $50. Even the seasonal rains that night could not dampen the Spirit as the Eagles won 20-8 over Lawndale!

CURRICULUM

Police Science is a class new to ESHS. Designed to familiarize the student with basic elements of criminal Justice System, particularly the police, PS class offers much for the students. It is not a vocational class or just for those who are considering a career in law enforcement. Rather, it is hoped that students will gain a better understanding of the police role as it applies to the broader scheme of social justice. Sgt. Dave Johnson and Sgt. Tim Grimmer acted as program coordinators for the course. The class met every 5th period at the police station. Besides lectures and reading, students were required to participate in a ride along in a police unit during the semester

Foreign Language students

answer "Too much homework!" when asked to give an opinion of the foreign language classes. They enjoy the ability to speak and write in another language and to study the country's customs and cultures. But to achieve good grades, language students had a lot of homework. Tapes, records, and other audio-lingual techniques help to ease the pain a little, and most students found the speeches and dialogues entertaining and worthwhile

"Audio-Visual" is now "Media Aide." The class encompasses all the preparation and maintenance as well as pick up and deliver audio-visual equipment. Students must have a desire to serve the school. They must have high citizenship rating and a recommendation from their counselor to become a M.A. Media Aides strive constantly to maintain a high degree of courtesy and quality in their duties.

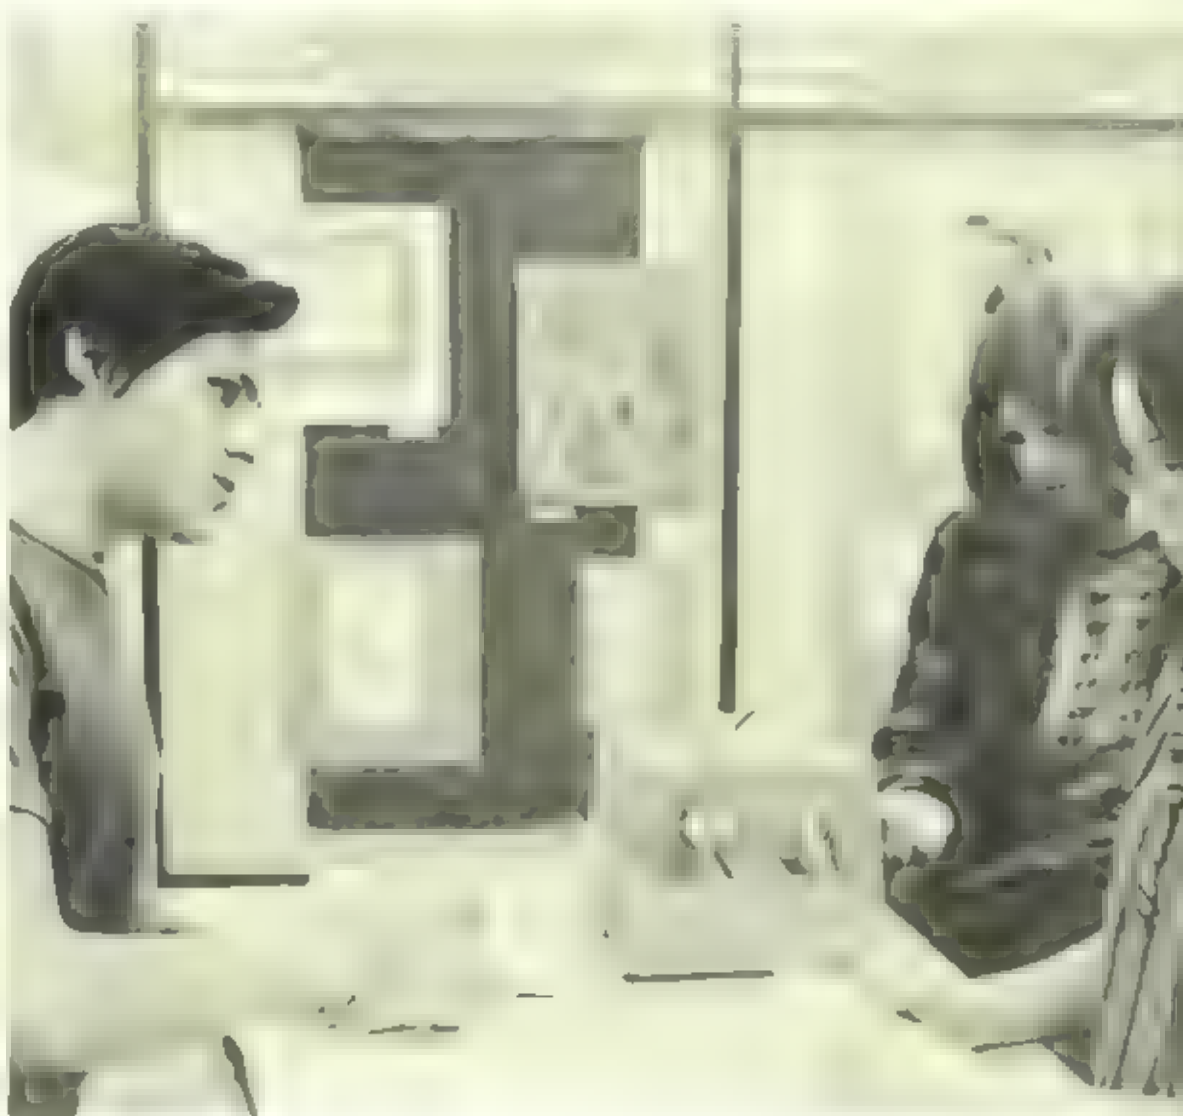

Duties of "Library Aides" include checking out materials such as books, magazines, records, and pamphlets to students and teachers. Aides are also responsible for the shelving of these materials. They assist students in locating materials and explain the usage of the audio-visual equipment. "Library Science" provides the college-bound students experience in the use of the library for reference and research. The course is also pre-vocational for students interested in pursuing a career in Librarianship.

Math includes numbers, their relationships and functions. Freshman or students who are beginning math satisfy the one year of math requirement by taking Foundations of Math or beginning Algebra. Those students who plan to enter colleges or work in fields that require more math choose from Algebra II, Trig., Geometry, or Math Analysis. Upperclassmen in these classes form the Math Club and compete with other schools in math competitions. Math has something for all levels of interest and ability.

Social Studies are required four years for graduation at ESHS. Freshman Studies is designed to help all Freshman to become properly oriented to high school life and to be concerned with family living and health. Sophomores can elect World Humanities, combined World History and English, or World History. Juniors choose between American Studies or American History and Seniors study Civics and the Social, Political and Economical systems of governments. Other electives include Behavioral Science and Psychology. All courses allow students to follow areas of special interest to them and their lives.

Science Department

at ESHS offers courses to all students in grades 9-12 at several different levels. One year of science is required for graduation, and either Earth Science or Life Science will fulfill this requirement. Earth Science uses the inquiry approach, and is a lab-science, taught mostly at the Freshman and Sophomore level. Life Science, another lab-inquiry course, is offered to students 9-12, but most students take it during their Freshman or Sophomore years. It offers a minimum to all students and a maximum to the better students.

Physical Education is a totally elective program which gives students a choice each six weeks of the P.E. activity they would most like to take. Practically all of the classes are co-ed. Many life time activities are taught such as tennis, badminton, table tennis, archery, golf, weight training and figure control, social dance, volleyball, and fencing. Also in-season team and individual activities such as football, soccer, track and field, basketball, softball, and gymnastics are taught.

Beginning Girls' Chorus

tried new methods and techniques of breathing exercises for strengthening and improving their voices. Performing for assemblies, Christmas concert, and festivals kept them busy singing all year. The girls wore long, yellow dresses for their public singing appearances. Miss Diane Simons, vocal music teacher, helped to keep the spirits and enthusiasm high for this group of young ladies who were embarking on their first step of musical groups at ESHS. Together they turned out some groovy tunes and fine singing.

girls already know how to sing. Some of them are trying to improve their voices so that they can get into Girls' Ensemble. Advanced Chorus is comprised of 10th and 11th grade girls with the ability and desire to sing. Much credit goes to Miss Diane Simons, music director, for the beautiful results that come from the voices of all the music groups.

Boys' Chorus, like every other chorus group, has good sound. Its members consists of boys from all grades with no previous voice training other than the class itself. They spend their class time working on their voices and from the sound of it, their work is well worth it.

Fine Arts Department

offers an exciting program for the student who is interested in art or art appreciation. In all art classes the student is encouraged to explore the many techniques, medias, and tools available to the artist. The student is given many opportunities to explore his creative potential, and he may also participate in a weekly studio workshop. The various art classes provide a foundation where the student may explore a particular area which interests him.

ORGANIZATIONS

Women's Lib came to Student Government in the fall of 1972. For the first time, the elected ASB President was a girl Diane McCauley. Meeting every day during fifth period, Student Government with Mr. R Peterson faculty advisor, decided on how the Student body money would be spent, what activities would be scheduled, and who would assume extra duties and responsibilities at games or events. They provided buses for away games and met with school administrators concerning students' rights, open campus and a free dress code Dr. Harter, Superintendent of Schools, and Board Member. Mr George Wiley, came to solicit student help in defeating Proposition 14. As usual, the Constitution was revised and a student handbook planned

Student Government helped finance a pitching machine for the baseball team, kept the marquee up-to-date, painted ticket booths, and provided many interesting assemblies for the student body They also promoted Christmas spirit by putting up two trees and Santa Claus mobiles for the classes Student Government works hard and long to achieve the best for El Segundo High School students

Girls' Athletic

Association enjoyed sports and friendship Wednesdays after school. They sold ice cream at home football games, had bake sales, and the annual dime-a-dip dinner to finance a scholarship for a senior G.A.A. girl. On October 25, they sponsored a volleyball playday. Basketball, softball, and a field day completed the four sport playdays that provided fun and competition among the girls.

The Varsity football team toppled to a 2-7 record this season and a fourth place finish in the Pioneer League. The second coaching change in three years hampered the Eagles early and key injuries to co-captain Tom Soto and all-league lineman Mike Sutherland hobbled the team but they refused to quit as they nabbed two league victories including a 20-8 homecoming romp over Lawndale. The Eagle defense led by Randy Grounds and Richard Smith showed brilliance in blanking St. Monica and shutting out a highly ranked Murphy team in the first half. On offense, Mike O'Dell and Tim Cargill ran well behind the good line blocking of Dave Stoltenberg and Dennis Riggins turned in a championship performance equaling their Frosh Record of last year with 8 wins and 1 dubious loss. Its balanced offense was anchored by an outstanding line and polished by quick hitting backs and sure-handed receivers. Defense was the Sophomore's fullest suit. They began the season with 4 straight shut-outs and finished with a total of 6 in nine games. The Eagles composite score was 166 to 38 lacking a potent offense, finished a disappointing season with a 1-8 record. Matched against tough competition, the Freshmen fought hard in every game gaining experience and desire with each performance

The Sophomore Eagles

1972 Varsity Water Polo

had a rather disappointing season. Their record was one of eight wins and twelve losses. Many of the losses are accounted for because the team was plagued by injuries all year. The season did have its bright spots, however, as the team placed 4th in the Inglewood Tourney. Captain Brian McNulty scored on 94 out of 194 attempts and was selected to an All-League 1st Team position. Senior Steve Mohr was among those selected to the All-League 2nd Team as was Sophomore Eric Atkeson. An unusual occurrence for an El Segundo team, this year they did not go to C.I.F., but Water Polo enthusiasts can expect a much stronger team in 1973, for seven members will have had Varsity experience had an up and down season this year; their record was seven wins and five losses. The J.V.s had an erratic number of members because the Varsity Water Polo team kept having injuries and pulling up different J.V. players. When this happened it prevented the J.V. team from molding together and forming a stronger team. J.V. regulars, Ben Bogossian, Rick Peterson, and Kirk Wolfsberger ended up carrying most of the load for the team. The J.V. coach, Mr. Brewer, along with Water Polo fans hope to see stronger J.V. teams in the future. Striving for perfection is common for El Segundo Water Polo.

1972 J.V. Water Polo

this year had the best year in the history of the school. They placed 5th in the Long Beach Invitational in their first outing. Captain, Scott Ziegler then led the team to five consecutive wins, all of which he finished first. The team ended the season with an 8 win 2 loss record. In the sixth meet they had their first loss to St. Monica by only 13 points, but then came back to beat them badly in league finals. The team placed a close second behind powerful St. Bernards in league, enabling them to go to CIF. During the year, Ziegler earned the second best on ESHS's all time list. Xavier Miller earned fifth on the all time list and Frosh runner Jerry Martin turned the fastest time ever for a freshman at El Segundo. Ziegler was awarded the Most Valuable Runner Award and Miller received the Most Improved Runner. The JV Cross Country team turned in a 7-3 record to tie the JV best. Throughout the year, runners like John Lawrence, Richard Ollivares, Jerry Martin, and Rudi Linke gave the JVs strength. Martin, a Frosh, received the JV Most Valuable Runner Award.

1972 Varsity Wrestling Team, hampered by inexperience, was looking towards the future instead of the present. With only two returning lettermen the team lost many duo meets this season. Throughout the season, Grapplers were led by Bill Frye who won seven straight matches at the start of the season. Jorge Gigena also had a fine start winning six of eight in two months. Jon Curia returned to defend his League Championship by also winning six of eight. Later Curia was the only Eagle to enter C.I.F. A new member to be successful was Pete Campbell who had a three and three record at the midpoint. Viewing the fact that the Eagles lose only one member, the future looks promising. Next year you will see familiar faces and an improved season due to the experience they have acquired.

The Varsity Eagles

had the nucleus of being one of the top Basketball teams in the 3A division of CIF as coach Joe Hern greeted a host of outstanding players at the start of the season. These included last year's MVP Dave Long, Senior forward Craig Cleary and standout Junior Sam Shriver. Unfortunately, key injuries to Shriver and guard Eric Tidwell hindered the Eagles attempt at a CIF berth as they fell to a fourth place finish in the Pioneer League. Bright spots for the Eagles this year included Dave Long's record breaking 50 point explosion against Lennox and Craig Cleary's 20 point and 24 rebound effort against St. Bernard

The Junior Varsity

Basketball team under the fine instruction of Coach Saikley finished the Pioneer League season with a 6-4 record. The J.V.'s were led by Junior center Dennis Riggins and Sophomore Mike Shanks as they gained valuable experience from playing against some of the South Bay's finest teams. Hard fought, aggressive basketball was the forte of the Eagles as they often dominated the rebounding in their games. Sophomore guards Joe Purvis and Ken Craig sparked the team with hustle, and led the J.V.'s to a lopsided 102 to 56 belting of St. Monica. The Junior Varsity improved with each encounter and will supply the Varsity with skillful players in the very near future.

4th place in the League with 5 wins and 5 losses. Darrell Roach was the leading scorer with a season average of 18.2 pts. Leading rebounder was Dave Allen with 186. Captain Jim Berggren was second rebounder with 162. The team won League games from St. Monica (2), Lennox (2), and Murphy (1). At the start of the season, the team was having some difficulties winning games, as shown by their record of 3 wins and 11 losses. Taking the team in hand, Coach Woodsmall welded them into a better playing unit by the time League play began. As the coach said, "That's when it counts."

The Girls' Varsity

Volleyball Team seemed destined to be stopped at 2nd: 2nd place Pioneer League and 2nd round of the C.I.F. Tournament. Utilizing the conventional 4-2 offense, the girls easily won their four pre-season matches, the only competition coming from Miraleste. Then the team faltered in its first league match against eventual Pioneer League Champion and C.I.F. runner up, Bishop Montgomery, even though El Segundo easily won the second game of the match, 15-3. Thereafter the team settled on a 5-1 offense with the lone setter Captain Cheryl Martin doing a fine job setting and on defense as well as leading the team in scoring 91 points on her serves. Offensive punch was provided by the spiking of Debby Cottriel, Debbie Landreth, and Kathy Pierson. Everyone played fine defense with good off-the-net coverage and backline digging as well as fine blocking by Debby Cottriel and Debbie Landreth. Only inconsistency in serving, setting and serve reception were the eventual downfall of the team in pressure spots such as the heartbreaking loss to Miraleste in C.I.F., 16-14 in the deciding game.

The "B" Team had a fine 4-2-1 season record led by Co-Captain Jeanie Collings and Gerry Holman, hitters Lori LaMay and Denise Oien, and setters Daien Knight and Debbie Montz.

With a combination of experience and talented newcomers the 1973 Eagle Baseball Team set out to capture their fifth straight Pioneer League Championship. Included in their early season triumphs was a Championship Trophy for winning the annual El Segundo Tournament. Returning Lettermen were Seniors Mike O'Dell and Phil Briese, Juniors Tom Soto, Eric Tidwell and Jeff Hancock. Up from the JV's were Seniors Mark Padjen, Mark Devilbiss, Jeff Franklin, Rick Smith, Dave Long, Lisle Randall, Juniors Chuck Zopfi, Scott Christensen, Matt Mullins, and Mike Glidewell. Neil Burnette, was a transfer student. Bat girls were Karen Purvis and Jevese Milleville. Scorekeeper was Phyllis Helvey and ball shaggers were Lisa Hamaker, Sandy Hull, Sue Dodgen and Kim Smith.

With a total squad of only 17 swimmers, the Eagle splashers have lacked the depth to score team victories in both the Varsity and Frosh-Soph divisions. However, some of the early season individual performances have been good. Senior, Brian McNulty has been a consistent winner in his favorite 200 and 400 yd Freestyle events. Brad Clevenger, a junior, has been successful in both the 200 yd. Individual Medley and the 100 yd. Butterfly. Junior Rod Randall has been strong in his specialty, the 100 yd. Breaststroke.

With six returning varsity lettermen, the team competed against Lennox and Murphy for the title. Exceptionally strong leadership in Administration highlighted the 1972-73 school year. From the Board of Education, whose job is to oversee the budget, curriculum and welfare for the entire school district to the high school administration, the education of students at ESHS was in capable hands. Dr. John Machisic, principal, was responsible for the classroom instructional program, teachers, and general welfare of students. Mr. Frank Craven, assistant principal in charge of guidance and discipline, assisted students and teachers in their responsibilities and privileges. Mr. Robert Kingston, assistant principal in charge of activities, served as coordinator of student activities and athletics between the school and the community. Attendance supervisor, Mr. James Porter made sure that the students were where they should be every minute of the day. All helped to make ESHS a better place for learning.

I don't know how to get water all over the mountain
 there is a river

There is a river
 in the middle of the mountain and it is very deep and wide
 and it is very cold
 and it is very clean and it is very good for drinking water

The water is very good and it is very clean and it is very good for drinking water

Tim—
 I hope you realize that you have the same name as my younger brother who eats broken bottles and pour's salt on snails just to watch them die. Bat foul plot ~~on~~ perfect.
 Well, you (taken Campbell insult), it really has been nice knowing someone so (Cliche) as you. Its refreshing
 I suppose I can't remain decadent forever.

Tim—
 I'm looking towards a good year and perhaps a better understanding of each other. Smile always and you will help others
 relax and appreciate life more as you have done for me. Love + Peace,
 Susan Herold

Tim,
 It's been fun in geometry this year
 I hope I've helped you with your problems. Have a nice summer

Hey Tim,
 Well, "ME BUCKO", we know you for a good five years, but it seems longer. You're really a beautiful person & your friendship has meant a lot to me. Don't forget me - I won't forget you - and I have a fantastically successful life next year & always! KEEP IN TOUCH

To a real good friend that cares. Which ever one should not be with
out. Have a good summer, and I know you and I'll be things together, good luck with Rocky because you deserve it. Thanks again for calling. And I will always be your friend

Per.

Tim, great knowing It's been great knowing you this year. Christmas was real fun. I'm glad I got to know
you. Good luck in the future.
